Message from the new Provincial of the Americas.

Dear friends,

I am delighted to present our 2025 calendar. You'll find beautiful photos of various African countries where the Missionaries of Africa, nuns, brothers and priests, have been working for 156 years.

As you will read on the next page, the previous Provincial Council, covering Mexico, the United States and Canada, has completed its six-year term. A new team has taken over to ensure the smooth running of our various communities in North America. The new delegate for Canada is Father Paul Johnston. Originally from Northern Ireland, he has been a missionary in South Africa, Ghana, Zambia, India and the Philippines. He now lives in Toronto, where we have a small community of five confreres.

I myself am originally from Burkina Faso. I was a missionary in Tanzania and Kenya before being appointed to Washington, the federal capital of the United States. My confreres have chosen me to become their new provincial. This illustrates the cultural diversity that has characterized the Society of Missionaries of Africa since it was founded by Mgr Charles Lavigerie when he was Bishop of Algiers.

Thank you all for supporting the mission that the Lord has entrusted to us for the African world, which is now shining out all over the world.

Father Barthélémy Bazemo, M.Afr

The province of the Americas

The Society of Missionaries of Africa, historically known as the 'White Fathers', was founded by Mgr. Charles Lavigerie in Algiers in 1868. The following year, he did the same with the Missionary Sisters of Notre-Dame d'Afrique, also known as the 'White Sisters'.

Since then, thousands of men and women have traversed the vast expanses of Africa. Initially coming primarily from Europe, Canadians have joined this spiritual family characterized by its international and intercultural composition. Today, the majority of new missionaries come from various African countries.

In the Americas, the province includes Mexico, the United States and Canada. Over the past decade, however, we have witnessed the arrival of many confreres from Africa.

Here is the composition of the Provincial Council of the Americas, which completed its six-year term in 2024.

Left to right: Serge St-Arneault, Canadian and provincial secretary, resident in Montreal, Armand Galay, originally from the Philippines now a Canadian citizen, and Canadian delegate, resident in Toronto, Réal Doucet, Canadian and provincial of the Americas, residing in Montreal; Antonio Koffi, Togolese and Provincial Bursar, residing in Washington; Barthélémy Bazemo, Provincial Delegate to the United States, residing in Washington; Cyriaque Mounkoro, Malian and Delegate of Mexico, residing in Querétaro; and Raphaël Muteba, Congolese and Advisor, residing at the training center in Guadalajara, Mexico.

Centre Afrika
A PLACE OF SUPPORTIVE HOSPITALITY

The Missionaries of Africa (White Fathers) set up the Afrika Centre in 1988 to enable Africans to forge bonds of friendship with one another and thus promote harmonious living together in Quebec society.

Our services:

- The Centre offers a welcoming space and a listening ear to newly arriving immigrants and directs them to existing help and services. Facilitates activities and events geared towards creating a network of solidarity.
- Helps develop initiatives and networks which promote integration and inclusion.
- Promotes intercultural and interreligious dialogue.
- Offers the use of multi-purpose halls and rooms for meetings and other activities.
- Provides an Internet portal for disseminating relevant information about organizations and associations that share the Centre Afrika's values.

Our vision:

To foster encounter of 'Africas' in their cultural and spiritual diversities and richness geared towards a harmonious living together between Africans and Montrealers / Quebecers.

Our motto:

*To live together in the spirit
of interculturality and supportive solidarity.*

The mission of the Missionaries of Africa is closely linked to issues of peace and social justice, intercultural and ecumenical dialogue. Our involvement in all these areas is evident in our pastoral commitments in parishes and specialized centers, particularly on the African continent. In the name of Gospel values, we also campaign against modern forms of slavery.

We live in intercultural communities, reflecting an increasingly universal world. The Missionaries of Africa have around 1,200 members - priests, brothers and lay associates - from 36 different nationalities. Our houses of formation welcome over 500 young people from various African countries, India, the Philippines and Mexico.
